

L'Chaim!

Mon. March 9th
join us to celebrate Purim with fun,
refreshments,
libations,
& more!

The Boston Synagogue

Rabbi Ben Lanckton,

Rabbi-in-Residence and Jewish Chaplain at MGH

"THE SPECIAL SHABBATS BETWEEN PURIM AND PESACH: Red Heifers, New Moons, and Mysterious Messiahs"

Thursday Evenings ~ 7:00-8:30 P.M. with

MARCH 11TH The Unique Case of the Red Heifer(s)

MARCH 18TH The Very, Very, First, First of the Month(s)

MARCH 25TH Mystery Messiah(s) Making Solace for Sons and Seniors

Celebrate Judaism in a meaningful and relevant way ... 52-weeks a year

FIRST NIGHT PASSOVER SEDER

Monday, March 29th

Led by DR. DAVID FISHMAN,

Professor of Modern Jewish History at the Jewish Theological Seminary

Reservations will be required.

Join us for a spirited, warm, traditional Seder Experience -- with a fully catered kosher dinner in downtown. Share your melodies and traditions and make new friends. Check the website for time, price and other details.

We are an unaffiliated egalitarian congregation ...in the heart of downtown Boston

FRIDAY NIGHT SERVICES. 6:30 pm. They are short, filled with singing & offer an interesting interactive discussion

SATURDAY MORNING. Preliminary services at 9:30. The Morning Services start at 9:45 am. Torah reading ~10:10. Festive Kiddush follows services

Visit our website:
www.bostonsynagogue.org

Welcome wherever you might be on your Jewish spiritual journey ... as singles, couples or families
We are a warm, unpretentious, caring & inclusive community that welcomes active participation in services by women, men & children or Become our Fan on Facebook!

The Boston Synagogue

"Creating A Welcoming Community for Jews in Downtown Boston"

55 Martha Rd. In Charles River Park.
Near Mass General & Charles Street Red Line T, TD Garden/North Station, Museum Towers, Science Park Green Line T. Parking available. Tel. 617-523-0453